

Description of catering stations

Sunday, 30th of August 2020

At BERGKÖNIG there are no gels, power bars or isotonic high-tech drinks. We eat and drink true and healthy like in the good old days, like cheese, sausages, beer and wine all from the close region. To help you planning your personal BERGKÖNIG ride, here is a brief description of what you can expect at every catering station.

Event village, center of Gstaad

In the event village there are 3 stands where participants are allowed to consume for free on Sunday from about 10:30 (only with official wristband AND fixed starting number).

Gstaad Dairy

The dairy of Gstaad serves its legendary "Raclette" (on bread rather than potatoes). There are several soft drinks, Vivi Kola and also Fendant (white wine) and Pinot Noir of winery Fin Bec from the close vallais region.

Saane Gutsch

A very, very small local brewery will serve its delicious beer. Don't exaggerate ...

Le Pedaleur Cycle Coffee

A real barista coffee served in style from a tricycle.

All bread is offered by the local bakery Early Beck.
